Peer Representatives

Abby Meyers

My name is Abby Meyers and I am planning on majoring in the Woodrow Wilson School. Here at Princeton, I am a part of the women's varsity basketball team. In my free time, I make it my mission to impact the greater good by way of volunteering in local communities (food shelters, trail clearing). Just recently, I passed my training to become a counselor for a nationwide crisis text line. I am a new and eager member of the Peer Representatives, promoting a due process for every student in question. I joined because of both personal experience and moral obligation I have to myself in helping students through the emotional ride of an investigation, hearing and overall process that I know can be very time-intensive and stressful.

DeAnna Christensen

Hi I'm DeAnna Christensen. I am a junior majoring in English and pursuing certificates in Spanish and African American Studies. I joined Peer Reps last semester during my sophomore year. I got involved because I believe in the importance of advocacy and wanted to do my part to ensure the integrity of the Princeton Honor Code. Here at Princeton, I participate in Mock Trial, give Orange Key tours, volunteer for the suicide hotline CONTACT, and tutor for the Petey Greene program.

Elizabeth Lilly

Hi! My name is Elizabeth, and I am a senior in the History department studying Anglo-French royal politics in the high medieval period. In addition to my duties as a Peer Representative, I am a member of the Peer Review Board of the Princeton Undergraduate Research Journal, and I enjoy creative writing in my spare time. I recently completed a semester abroad at the University of Cambridge and I hope to return to the UK to pursue postgraduate opportunities, professional and academic.

Ethan Thai

Hi all! My name is Ethan and I'm an Electrical Engineering major in the class of 2021. I grew up in Chandler, Arizona, but have moved around to El Paso, Texas and, presently, Columbus, Ohio. On campus I am a Wilson Peer Academic Advisor and am a part of Engineers Without Borders. I also am a TA for EGR153 and do research within the ELE department. I joined Peer Reps to make a daunting and confusing process be as understandable and fair as possible.

Grace Masback

Hi Everyone! My name is Grace and I am from Portland, Oregon (though I moved around a lot growing up). I am a member of the Class of 2021, majoring in Near Eastern Studies! I am also a proud resident of Wilson College. On campus, I am involved with SPEAR (Students for Prison Education and Reform), the Petey Greene Program and I am on the board of the Center for Jewish Life. I am also a tutor with the El Centro program and do research for a professor in the Woodrow Wilson School. I joined Peer Reps because I want to make sure Princeton's honor system is executed in a way that feels fair, equitable, and understandable to all.

Isra Thange

Hi, I'm Isra! I'm a sophomore from Franklin Park, New Jersey, majoring in the Woodrow Wilson School with certificates in Near Eastern Studies and the History and Practice of Diplomacy. On campus, I am the Vice President of the International Relations Council, an attorney on the Mock Trial team, a member of the Model UN team, and an organizer for the Princeton Model UN Conference. I decided to get involved with the Peer Reps because I want to be a resource for students who need it, and do my part to make sure Princeton's Honor process is carried out in a way that is fair and equitable for everyone involved.

Misha Tseitlin

Hi there! I'm Misha, a native of California's SF Bay Area and Woodrow Wilson School major. On campus I'm a part of the Princeton Debate Panel and the Religious Life Council and serve as Managing Editor for Europe and Eurasia for American Foreign Policy. I joined the Peer Reps to do my part to humanize Princeton's Honor process and do my part in working towards a fair, equitable system for all.

Nick Jain

Hello! My name is Nick, I am a Junior in the Politics Department, and I am a Peer Representative to make sure that all students are treated as fairly and equitably as possible during what can be a tremendously stressful and emotionally draining process. On campus, outside of being a Peer Representative, I am a member of the Diversity and Equity committee, and the Model UN team. Off campus, I was the Founder and COO of JUV Consulting, a youth consulting firm committed to empowering young people throughout the world. Both on and off campus, I survive on pretty much exclusively candy and flaming hot cheetos, and have a deep seated love for rom-coms, sad music, and smartwater.
